

SEEHAUSEN
AGAPLESION DIAKONIEKRANKENHAUS

Attending Physician (f/m)

- You are a specialist in anesthesiology with a broad spectrum of knowledge about anesthesiology and intensive care, especially versed in regional anesthesia
- For the future you see yourself as part of a powerful and interdisciplinary primary care
- You are looking for a permanent job with the ability to set professional accents
- You appreciate a flat hierarchy and a collegial and family-friendly work environment

Our hospital offers ideal conditions: we provide a wide operating range in the General, Visceral and Trauma Surgery and gynecology (without obstetrics). Additionally, operations in orthopedics, urology and ear, nose and throat medicine are provided. The intensive care unit is under anaesthesiological line. All commonly used procedures in the fields of anesthesiology, paintherapy and intensive care are being performed. Each year over 5,000 hospitalized patients are treated. An emergency service vehicle is stationed at the hospital. All Function rooms, operating rooms, the intensive care unit and the centre for outpatient surgery with a receiving station are equipped with highly modern instruments.

You can expect an interesting job with room for creativity and development potential as well as a modern individual contract. The location of our hospital in the idyllic town of Seehausen (Altmark) with its high recreational value is remarkable. In addition to an ideal child care on site (nursery, kindergarten), all types of schools are easy to reach. The main railway stations of Berlin and Hamburg are about an hour away each.

Are you interested? Then please send us your detailed application documents within 4 weeks.
