3-months Clinical Rotation Internal Medicine in Philadelphia, USA

A joint project of University of Pennsylvania, the Vienna Medical Association supported by Going International Information Services.

TARGET GROUP: Students of the medical universities of Vienna, Graz, and Innsbruck.

VENUE: the renowned Pennsylvania Hospital, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia
www.pennmedicine.org

DESCRIPTION: 3 months clinical rotation. Only two placements available per rotation. Focus on internal medicine. The rotation starts with haematology/oncology (first month mandatory), after that you may choose other discipline for the second and third months (e.g. pulmonology, cardiology, gastroenterology or nephrology)

SCHEDULE: Rotation 1: 1st Jan. – 31st Mar.
Rotation 2: 1st Apr. – 30th Jun.
Rotation 3: 1st Jul. – 31st Sep.
Rotation 4: 1st Oct. – 31st Dec.

REQUIREMENTS: Eligible are 5th and 6th year students with strong interest in internal medicine. At least 12 weeks of prior clinical electives. English proficiency.

APPLICATION: Send your inquiry to Dr. Gerhard Polak (gpolak@goinginternational.org) with your CV and letter of motivation. Interviews will take place at the Vienna Medical Association.

COSTS: € 150,– administration fee (interview & application procedure),
US$ 300,– administration fee of the University of Pennsylvania,
US$ 780,– per month for housing on the university's campus.
Travel and living costs.

»Going International promotes access to education and training for all regardless of social, geographic and national borders.«

www.goinginternational.eu

Penn
University of Pennsylvania

ÄRZTEKAMMER FÜR WIEN

GOING INTERNATIONAL health information services